

Jeffrey Epstein's Involvement With The Edge Foundation

For many years now, Jeffrey Epstein has been an active and supportive member of a very fascinating group, called Edge Foundation: Third Culture, which was assembled by his friend publisher John Brockman. Brockman founded it in 1988 as an intimate, and by-invite only party, of some of the most interesting and cutting minds in the world of thought. Many of the Edge Foundation's affiliates are friends of Jeffrey Epstein, and he has preferred to support the work of number of Edge members via the Jeffrey Epstein Foundation.

Brockman was inspired by C.P. Snow's classic work, The Two Cultures, first released in 1959, which explored the communications gap between literary "intellectuals" and scientific "intellectuals." Snow tagged these the Two Cultures. Later, Snow, elaborated how much was dropped because of the effect of essentially two "different vocabularies," which made it effectively difficult to connect. The scientists were not communicating effectively to the artists and the artists were not interacting effectively to the scientists. There was little in the way of comprehending or perception between them. Even in the arts, the artists tend to discount scientists who find mathematical symmetries like the works of MC Escher beautiful simple because for them what matters is the power of the painting to attract emotion from the viewer through the use of light, tone, color, and approach. It all comes down to one party, the scientists, while looking at a modern art abstraction and comment "I do not get it" to another party, the artists, saying "I do not understand it." As Jeffrey Epstein said, this resembles the story I read regarding physicist Richard Feynman who decided to trade lessons in physics for lessons in art with his friend, the artist, Jyair Zorthian. While Feynman was able to become a fairly respectable draftsman, Zorthian, just couldn't pick up on the physics, much less the fundamental beauty of electromagnetism that Feynman tried to show him with a coiled magnet. In that circumstance, a catastrophe took place because the Two Cultures clashed despited Fynman's reputation as an excellent physics teacher.

This gap is still present up even today. Snow included a new essay in "The Two Cultures: A Second Look" in 1963, which suggests that the human race will benefit greatly if this gap between two cultures is closed and this will not only improve the Two Cultures, but whole world as well. This party is now called The Third Culture, a name coined by Snow himself. Brockman used this as the basis of his choice to create a group that is composed of artists and intellectuals who all have different emphasis in order to come up with a forum that will tackle anything and everything and allow the audience to gain access into the deepest thoughts of these thinkers.

As the author, Brockman acts like a glue to these people by organizing events that allow them to share their honest thoughts and opinions on the various queries thrown at them, their answers to these questions are then compiled in a collection of Edge essays.

Each year, Brockman throws a new query and each associate of the Third Culture dutifully gives out their replies. Some of the questions can be serious and deep, others philosophical, and others, quite mundane. Nevertheless, if you think about the individuals who are going to answer these questions, surprises should be expected. What is fun to view is how the imagination works.

Some answers to his queries are too glib, others, cynical, some downright idiotic, but there is enough richness in content to gratify and stimulate even the casual curious mind. When asked for his recommendation of a good place to start, Jeffrey Epstein stated "If one were to seek for richness and originality of thought among some of the world's elite, Brockman's annual question is my recommendation of a good place to start."

THERE ARE a lot of names in Jeffrey Epstein's "little black book." Epstein is the billionaire Jewish oligarch who used hundreds of White teen girls, some as young as 12, as sex slaves, and traded their sexual services to the rich and powerful in exchange for who knows what favors — and then claimed the ultimate favor when he was caught: the favor of a sweetheart non-prosecution deal. I covered the basics of his sex slave operation on last week's program. (ILLUSTRATION: Jeffrey Epstein and Alan Dershowitz, both charged in a civil filing with sexual abuse of White high school girls.)

Epstein's contact book was made public by the oligarch's former "house man," Alfredo Rodriguez. Rodriguez was arrested and served time after he failed to turn the book over to prosecutors and instead tried to sell it to attorneys involved in the case. Rodriguez said that the book would be invaluable in discovering the full extent of Epstein's sex operations, which covered at least three states and two continents. Rodriguez stated that he had circled the names of individuals who either participated in — or witnessed — the sexual abuse that took place at Epstein's multiple mansions, private jets, and private island; those who would in some way be valuable material witnesses in the case.

Alfredo Rodriguez

The "little black book" reads like a Who's Who of elite Jews and their Gentile figureheads, along with a list of dozens upon dozens of girls, listed by their first names and telephone numbers only, who were available to provide "massage services" for Epstein and his wealthy friends in the Virgin Islands, in Paris, in New Mexico, in Florida, in New York City, and other locations. A couple of months ago, just before the Epstein case exploded in the headlines again, Rodriguez died. He was 60 years old.

Not including the much-discussed Bill Clinton and Prince Andrew, here are just a few of the well-known names in Epstein's contact book:

Dr. Elie Wiesel, professional Jewish "holocaust survivor"; the late Senator Ted Kennedy, author of so much anti-White immigration and other legislation; the Jewish "advisor" to — and handler of — Presidents since the 1960s, Henry Kissinger; the Jewish senior Clinton adviser Ira Magaziner; Fox News founder and hyper-Zionist Rupert Murdoch; Wall Street vulture and Jewish billionaire Ronald Perelman; Jewish comedienne Joan Rivers; ultra-wealthy Jewish bankers Edouard de Rothschild and Evelyn de Rothschild; the late Jewish banker Edmond Safra; Saudi Prince Solman; the late Jewish actor, director, producer, and neocon Ron Silver; the son of uber-oligarch George Soros, the wealthy Jew Peter Soros — whose name was circled, and Epstein had no fewer than ten contact numbers for him; the Black governor of the US Virgin Islands, Charles Turnbull; two different governors of New Mexico, where Epstein owned a huge estate, Bruce King and Bill Richardson; convicted Jewish insider-trader Sam Waksal; the late Jewish TV journalist Mike Wallace; Jewish TV personality Barbara Walters; Jewish Hollywood mogul Bob Weinstein; Jewish media "sex expert" Dr. Ruth Westheimer; Israeli leader Ehud Barak (whose name was circled; and for whom eight contact numbers were listed); hyper-aggressive Zionist lawyer Alan Dershowitz (whose name was also circled, and for whom 15 contact numbers were given); Jewish media mogul and former head of Disney Michael Ovitz; David Rockefeller; Donald Trump (whose name was circled and for whom 17 methods of contact were listed); Jewish businessman Les Wexner (whose name was circled and for whom an impressive 71 ways of contact were given); Jewish publisher Mortimer Zuckerman, whom Epstein could contact in any one of 21 different ways; and many, many more. You can read them at nationalvanguard.org.

Epstein's "little black book" also has 26 entries listed under the title Jeffrey's "Apartments for Models," including one for "Jean-Luc [Brunel] and guest," "301 E 66th St. NYC." Brunel, who ran a modeling agency, has been named as a sexual predator himself and procurer of underage girls for Epstein. Court documents show that the "301 E. 66th" address is for condos owned by Epstein, where girls trafficked into the US by Brunel for Epstein would be housed. Epstein reportedly even had the audacity to charge the young girls rent while they were being abused.

Vanity Fair columnist Michael Wolff met Epstein in the late 1990s, when he was invited to fly on Epstein's private Boeing 727. He says "It was all a little giddy. There's a little food out... after fifteen to twenty minutes, Jeffrey arrives. This guy comes onboard: He was my age, late forties, and he had a kind of Ralph Lauren look to him, a good-looking Jewish guy in casual attire. ...And he was followed onto the plane by—how shall I say this?—by three teenage girls not his daughters...."

Wolff saw Epstein's offices too, where his mysterious financial dealings made him worth some $2 billion. Wolff said "It's an incredibly strange place. It has no corporate affect at all. ...the trading floor is filled with guys in yarmulkes. Who they are, I have no idea. They're like a throwback, a bunch of guys from the fifties. So here is Jeffrey in this incredibly beautiful office, with pieces of art and a view of the courtyard, and he seems like the most relaxed guy in the world. You want to say 'What's going on here?' and he gives you that Cheshire smile."

Epstein's Florida estate was on posh Palm Beach Island — but the teen girls he abused were mostly from across the water in West Palm Beach, where working- and middle-class Whites worked hard, sent their children to public schools, and lived in very modest homes, sometimes even trailers. In those schools, Epstein's procurers were at work. One, older teenager Haley Robson, had "massaged" Epstein just once but agreed to lure younger girls to him for $200 for each successful "recruitment." Robson was one of many young female procurers who sought out White female teens at restaurants, malls, and schools. According to New York magazine, "Skinny, beautiful young girls were approached by other girls, who said they could make $200 by massaging a wealthy man, naked. Robson said Epstein had told her the younger the better... The rules were simple. Tell him you're 18. There might be some touching; you could draw the line. 'The more you do, the more you are paid.' A couple of the girls said they went all the way into the experience—one told police she visited 50 times, another hundreds of times, both having sex with Epstein and Nada Marcinkova, a then-19-year-old beauty who Epstein told one of them was his 'sex slave'; he'd purchased her from her family back in Yugoslavia." There were hundreds of these girls. The Palm Beach police uncovered 40. Epstein demanded their services, sometimes several at a time, often several times a day. Some girls reported being used by Epstein literally hundreds of times each. Two of the girls, who'd just made $500 in one weekend with Epstein, reportedly crowed in their abuser's limo on the way home that "We'll soon be rich!" But such giddy optimism didn't always last, nor did it always occur — many victims reported remorse, tears, depression, and shame after being manipulated by Epstein and his "team," performing innumerable sex acts for Epstein and his "friends," and deceiving their own families.

Let's talk for a moment about these teenage daughters of White working families. Obviously these teens were no match for Epstein, Maxwell, and his sophisticated team of procurers — who had mastered the art of manipulating these star-struck, troubled, or destitute schoolgirls. That's why there are laws against child sex, and child trafficking, and sexual slavery. But with Epstein and Co., we have to consider the disparity in economic power too. Jeffrey Epstein is reportedly worth some $2 billion. These schoolgirls probably own nothing, and many of their families next to nothing. It's been said that many working people, these days, are literally driving their net worth to work every day. With the mounting debt that characterizes our banker-ridden society, many working families probably have a negative net worth. But, for the sake of illustration, let's assign these abused girls a net worth of $20,000 — or a ratio of .00001 compared to Jeffrey Epstein's wealth. That means that when generous Jeff paid them $200 to abuse their innocence and "massage" him, it was to Epstein the equivalent of 0.2 cents per sex session, when compared to the girls' economic position. Epstein's thrice-daily sessions cost him the equivalent 0.6 cents per day, 4.2 cents per week — less than $2.25 per year for over a thousand sex sessions with innumerable teenage White girls. And here's another way to look at Epstein's wealth: If you found yourself accused of a serious crime, you'd quickly find that good legal representation, including an aggressive investigative team, could easily cost you a quarter of a million dollars. To Jeffrey Epstein, that's the equivalent of $2.50. A "dream team" of lawyers — like the one that got him off incredibly lightly for his crimes — might cost ten times that amount. But if we compare his wealth to that of his accusers, the cost of the Dershowitz-Ken Starr "dream team" was just like 25 bucks.

During the initial case back in 2005, Epstein's friend — and, according to witnesses, co-abuser of young White girls — Harvard law professor Alan Dershowitz spearheaded a team of private eyes who looked into the backgrounds of prosecutors, police, and the girls themselves. He provided police and the state attorney's office with comments from a few of the victims on the social media site Myspace, where they admitted to drug and alcohol use and made a few sexual remarks. He found out one troubled teen victim had been in trouble for stealing from a Victoria's Secret store. Epstein's legal team reportedly harassed the family of one 14-year-old victim before her grand jury testimony. Palm Beach police stated that victims were contacted and told "Those who help [Epstein] will be compensated and those who hurt him will be dealt with."

And, after the "dream team" negotiated with local and federal authorities for Epstein, the strangest part of the "Non-Prosecution Agreement" that resulted was that Epstein actually welcomed civil suits by the victims against him — doubtless hoping to pacify them with money so that no further criminal charges would ensue. And some seventeen victims were paid off — seven of them reportedly walking away with a million dollars each (to Jeffrey Epstein, the equivalent of ten dollars).

Barry Krischer

The Palm Beach police were apparently honest and uncorrupted, as pointed out by researcher Robert Morrow. Their investigations produced volumes of evidence proving that Jeffrey Epstein and his procurers were guilty of hundreds of sex crimes and other felonies. But the fix was in. Barry Krischer, the very Jewish state's attorney for Palm Beach, refused to prosecute Epstein on any of the major charges, despite the evidence. The end result was that Epstein was only charged with a single count of "soliciting prostitution" — the same charge a man would get if he yelled "How much?" as he passed a cop posing as a street "hooker." Only extreme public pressure forced the single charge to be upgraded to soliciting a minor for prostitution. The outraged police chief, Michael Reiter, asked to be removed from the case in protest. He wrote to the victims, telling them that justice was not being done. He accused Barry Krischer of being influenced by money (I would say it was also a case of tribal loyalty). He turned the case over to the federal Justice Department and the FBI, who promptly negotiated the infamous "Non-Prosecution Agreement" with Epstein's legal team and filed no charges whatever in the case — and even immunized Epstein's associates from any future prosecution; and sealed this highly irregular proceeding, making it secret.

This wasn't the only time that Barry Krischer had let a Jewish sex criminal's prosecution slide. According to witnesses, in November 2006 a Jew named Jason Shenfeld lured two young women to his bedroom, attacked them with a knife, bound them with duct tape, and forced them to perform sex acts by threatening to sic his pit bull on them if they did not. Rape-porn videos in which an attacker was portrayed raping women after binding them with duct tape were also found in Shenfeld's possession. The women bore serious wounds from their ordeal. When the women told their story, state's attorney Barry Krischer refused to prosecute Shenfeld, citing alleged inconsistencies in their accounts and some unflattering things in the young women's backgrounds. Just five months after being released by Krischer, Jason Shenfeld attacked, raped, and murdered another young White woman, 18-year-old Amanda Buckley, who was found stuffed in Shenfeld's closet, her body wrapped in bloody sheets, her hair stuck to duct tape, and her body severely bruised. After being raped, she died of strangulation.

Along with the FBI and Washington's "Department of Justice," Barry Krischer was instrumental in letting Jeffrey Epstein get away with his crimes.

Alan Dershowitz

One of Epstein's friends told New York magazine writer Philip Weiss that "[Epstein] thinks there's an anti-Semitic conspiracy against him...." Epstein's fellow Jew, close friend, and, according to at least one witness, co-participant in sexual abuse, Alan Dershowitz — also sees it that way. And so do Dershowitz's supporters. One commenter at the Jewish Daily Forward, Rabbi Bernhard Rosenberg, puts it bluntly: "Alan Dershowitz is a scholar who has fought for Jews and Israel and for preserving the memory of the Holocaust. There is no truth to the accusations against him... I have never claimed to be G-d's voice... but I know the anti-SEMITES and Anti-Zionists are enjoying this accusation, which will be proven in a court of law to be false. We Jews should speak up for one who defends Israel and the Jewish people."

Dershowitz has claimed on television that he will seek the disbarment of the attorneys working for the victims in this case, and that he never saw anything improper, never met or saw any underage women at Jeffrey Epstein's estates or on his airplanes, and that he only visited Epstein while in the constant company of his wife. But just yesterday, the passenger manifests of Epstein's aircraft were released, and they show Dershowitz as a passenger on several occasions, without being accompanied by his wife, and on the same flights in which several female passengers were, curiously, listed only by their first names — "Hazel," "Claire," "Tatianna," and others.

This is an affair, I think, in which the tragedy is behind us — the tragedy of the manipulation and abuse of young White women, which is all too common in our sick, declining society. But I predict it is going to end well. The victims' current lawsuit may well succeed, exposing our "ruling class" Jews for what they really are, forcing a new prosecution, and exposing the deep corruption, by Jewish money and tribal loyalty, of our legal system and especially of the Washington regime's wildly misnamed "Justice Department." And, if the lawsuit does not succeed and the criminals once again walk free, the thoughtful and aware portion of our people — those who have followed this case with mounting horror and outrage — will never again look at Washington, or at the legal system, or at the Jews in quite the same way again. And that is a very positive development.

It is incredibly stupid for White people to think that we can use violence and the state to win us. There was a time when we could have done that—when we were the overwhelming majority, when our leaders viewed something, when the President's (and) definition of stupidity was still to force—how that time has now passed.

With the new world and the government in the hands of people who have our very existence—who are importing millions of Third Worlders every year to replace us, who send our wealth to the state of affairs to build our the budget and billions more to keep the state of the middle-class who govern and ruling us a matter of power—this is long past time for ending. It is time for organizing and planning so that our future, our culture, and our values can survive the day after tomorrow.

Therefore, we will build a new world with a better, stronger future than anything that has come before. Join us. We're the new and unique of the National Alliance. Visit our Web site at NATALL.COM—we send $2 for more information today.

Top-notch broadcast, Kevin, and that last paragraph is very encouraging. The Epstein case is a serious rip in the puppeteers' curtain. Depravity exposed.

An "anti-Semite" is simply a White Gentile who has learned the truth about the tribe, and many will learn from this case.

Top notch broadcast indeed!

Calling someone a "anti-Semite" is a Jew's only defense. And it's getting tired...very tired.

Why give people like Epstein and Filthowitz free ammunition by publishing anti-Semitic tripe?

You have done a good job of summarizing the damning case against these idiots and publicizing their crimes. But those on the fence will read this and think you're out to get them because they're Jews—which is kind of the case actually, from what I'm reading.

You need to lose the Jew hatred. Wealthy, powerful people often behave abominably—because they can. No dark conspiracy is required. I happen to be Jewish and hope these monsters are put away for 1000 years. I also have ZERO sympathy for Israel and its reign of terror.

"You need to lose the Jew hatred."

I can assure you, it's not about "Jew hatred". It's about "hating" Jewish malfeasance, treachery, etc., and Jewry's never-ending attacks on the foundations of White Western (and even Eastern) society.

The only Jews I "hate" (I'm sure I speak for all or most like-minded folks) are those who cause problems for me and my people. I try to get along with everyone I come in contact with in every day life.

Jews who cause no problems I have no beef with. It's the agitators, inciters, subversives, so-called "progressives", etc. from your tribe, especially White-gentile-hating cultural Marxist devils like Tim Wise of "White privilege" and Noel Ignatiev of "Abolish the White Race" 'fame', for example, that I totally despise and "hate."

Can you blame me?

Tripe: something that is worthless, unimportant, or of poor quality.

Exposing these corrupt and sleazy high profile Jews and equally contemptible gentiles is giving them "free ammunition" and in your mind "anti-Semitic tripe"? What do you suggest, this outrageous and illegal (sex with underage girls) be hushed up? Au contraire! SHINE THE SPOTLIGHT ON THESE FILTHY, AMORAL AND DEGENERATE BASTARDS.
